

International consultation on The Situation in Myanmar: Regional Solutions

International Consultation on The Situation in Myanmar: Regional Solutions

October 11, 2022 Centre for Peace and Justice

The Centre for Peace and Justice of Brac University, the Asia Justice Coalition and the International Commission of Jurists co-convened an international consultation on "The Situation in Myanmar: Regional Solutions" on 3 October 2022 in Bangkok, Thailand.

The event brought together diplomats, journalists, activists, lawyers, academics, regional and national representatives, and policymakers from Asia to discuss issues relating to the current situation in Myanmar.

The objective of the meeting was to share information on Myanmar and explore possible regional solutions. The discussion covered three topics: Situation in Myanmar, ASEAN and Neighbouring State Response to Myanmar Coup, and International Justice for the Rohingya. A report containing recommendations from the consultation will be published soon.

PREV POST

Workshop on Community-Based Research in an Emergency Context with CPJ, BRAC University

NEXT POST

Peace Cafe launched as a club at BRAC University

Centre for Peace and Justice is a multi-disciplinary academic institute, which promotes global peace and social justice through quality education, research, training and advocacy.

Career

CPJ Network

Newsletter

Name :

Email

Subscribe

Contact Us

Our Office

BRAC University, Building 07, Level 09, 43 Mohakhali C/A Dhaka 1212, Bangladesh

Mail Us

cpj@bracu.ac.bd

Call Us

02-9844051